Excelling in every step. We manufacture.

Cascando designs are a result of a constant dialogue with designers and architects. They challenge us, we challenge them. Together we develop original products that not only add functionalities to people's workspaces but will also boost their engagement, wellbeing and energy. Laura de Lossantos Parola: 'How do you design a lively atmosphere in an open workspace where people can switch from 'formal to informal' and from 'private to communal' in minutes? The power of a space is made from the sum of its parts. Shape, style, material, colour palette, all these elements feed on our sensibility to catch the spirit of times. We fuse these essentials into practical products that put a little smile on people's faces.'
